Please join the Women's Research Institute of Nevada in honoring Jan Jones as the third recipient of the WRIN Leadership Award. The WRIN Leadership Award is given annually to an individual who has made significant contributions as a mentor and a leader in the greater Las Vegas community. Previous awardees were Pat Mulroy (2009) and Thalia Dondero (2010).

The Women's Research Institute of Nevada is excited to honor Jan Jones. She is Senior Vice President of Communications and Government Relations for Caesars Entertainment, Incorporated where she oversees all worldwide government affairs, corporate communications, community relations, and corporate social responsibility programs for the corporation. Prior to joining Caesars in 1999, Jones served two terms as Mayor of the City of Las Vegas and was the first woman elected to that office. She has supported the Women's Research Institute of Nevada since its founding in 1999.

We invite you to join us in this celebration. Your support may be in the form of a sponsorship, purchasing a table or program advertisement, or donating items to the silent auction. An Evening to Honor Jan Jones will take place on Thursday, September 22, 2011 at the Rio. The evening will begin with a cocktail reception and silent auction at 6pm. At 7:30pm, the program, including dinner, will begin with remarks by a number of prominent speakers from southern Nevada, including Jan Jones.

The Women's Research Institute of Nevada was founded in 1999 and is housed in the College of Liberal Arts at UNLV. WRIN accomplishes its mission to foster the social and economic development of all Nevadans through the collection, preservation, and analysis of information on women in the state. As a self-supporting institute, WRIN's funding comes from grants, contracts, and gifts. This event is WRIN's largest fundraising effort.
